GEAR

Works part time as a black market surgeon for the mafia to help cover debt interest. Shadowruns in the hopes to make it big to pay off his loans.

Always wears gloves and a long lined coat to hide his cyberlimbs. Looks a bit fat at first glance but that is just bulky cyberlimbs. Hispanic ancestry.

As Alfonso actually has studied medicine he feels slightly superior and expects to live in decent comfort of at least a middle lifestyle. Anything less is below him.

Steampunk robot matrix avatar

DESCRIPTION

Had a middle lifestyle upbringing. Has always been interested in cyberware and dreamed to one day be cybered up. Studied to be a doctor of medicine to learn more about augmentations and worked at a hospital as a surgeon to study them up close.

Started working side jobs installing illegal cybernetics to gain more funds, heavily modified his body with less-than-legal cybernetics which he aquired on a loan from the mafia which he did the side jobs for. The hospital eventually discovered the unauthorized surgeries and fired him before he had time to pay off the loans and he is now left with only his chrome and large debt.

BACKGROUND

Heavily cybered combat medic with good mobility, medical skills and utility gear.

Assault rifle for going in loud.

Cyber SMG for stealthier operations. (planning to install a supressor later)

Can smuggle stuff with 2 large smuggle compartments.

Can move vertically with grappling hand and hydraulic jacks.

Can use eye in grappling hand for observation.

Radar sensor to see through walls.

Always carries a hidden medical kit in torso for when you need to perform a sudden surgery.
